

Wordpress.org Recap

It's a self-hosting option: you pay for storage

It's Free to install, but you may have to pay for Themes and Plugins

It's owned by you

You can any content to your site

You can monetize your site with Google AdSense

It sits on your server or hosting provider's servers

It's managed by you, if your site breaks you fix it

Wordpress.org Recap

You do your own file backups

You can install and use any Wordpress Theme, very customizable

It provides great functionality with plugins

It produces some hassel, but all the control you want

It will import from Wordpress.com